

a CARBON TRACE PRODUCTION

WITNESS AT TORNILLO

One man from Brooklyn finds himself in a West Texas desert, compelled to witness the cruelty of family separation and child detention on the US southern border.

Witness at Tornillo is a documentary film that follows Josh Rubin, a border activist who plants himself outside the child detention center in Tornillo, Texas. Rubin draws national attention to the facility and helps to shut it down. Today, Rubin is in Matamoros, Mexico, witnessing the inhumane conditions caused by Trump's Remain in Mexico policy. Taye Taye, videographer and editor of Witness at Tornillo, will be on hand to answer questions.

PREVIEW SCREENING:

Sanctuary Rising is an intimate portrait of two undocumented mothers who enter Sanctuary in their local churches and continue to fight for legal status. Filmmaker Theo Rigby will be present to show a trailer and talk about next steps to complete the film.

Two films presented by:

Kehilla Community Synagogue
Immigration Committee,
Interfaith Movement for Human Integrity and Epworth Sanctuary Action

Information:

510.524.2921 epworthberkeley.org

Saturday, February 29, 2020
Epworth United Methodist Church
1953 Hopkins Street, Berkeley

Doors open at 6:30 p.m. (refreshments)
Screening begins at 7:00 p.m.
Suggested donation: $5-$20